Roosevelt Dinner, April 10

The San Diego County Democratic Party will hold the Annual Roosevelt Dinner on Saturday, April 10, 2010, at the Holiday Inn at the Bay, in San Diego.

This is the big event of the year, bringing county Democratic Party members together to celebrate, connect and share information and strategies for winning in 2010.

General admission is $85 per person. However, La Jolla Democratic Club Executive Board is inviting LJDC members and their guests to sit at LJDC Reserved Tables, receiving a $35 honorarium and paying only $50 per person.

To attend, please contact Michael McQuary at michael\_mcquary@yahoo.com or phone (858-752-9544).

California Democratic Party 2010 State Convention

The California Democratic Party will hold the State Convention on April 16-18, 2010, at the Los Angeles Convention Center.

The mid-term election of 2010 is a watershed event for Democrats across California. This crucial election year will be kicked off with the annual CDP State Convention in Los Angeles. Explore the new website <<http://cademconvention.org/>> to find all the information you will need in order to register, take care of travel arrangements, and get an idea of what to expect at the convention.

Early Childhood Education: Investing in the Future Thursday, April 29, 2010 Luncheon and Panel

Save the Date: The League of Women Voters of San Diego and the La Jolla Democratic Club's Focus for Change in Education are co-hosting a luncheon and panel discussion on April 29, 2010 to educate the community about the importance of preschool education and where it is at this time in San Diego.

The panel will be facilitated by Dr. Randy Ward, superintendent of the County Office of Education and will include state and local experts as well as representatives from our business community. There will be time allotted for questions from the luncheon attendees. Contact Jacque Nevels <jpnaveles@yahoo.com> regarding questions or reservations to attend this important event.
